Summer Reading Club 2011 – One World, Many Stories! June 6 through July 30

This year's Summer Reading Club: One World, Many Stories is packed with exciting performers and programs! This 9 week program will feature reading activities from around the world, with programs for children preschool age through 6th grade. Magic, Puppetry, Maryland Science Center, Zoo America, Reptile Friends and many other wonderful events are planned, with a family picnic rounding out the fun. See details of all the programs on page 2 of this newsletter. Register starting June 6. All programs sponsored by Friends of East Pennsboro Branch.

HOLIDAY CLOSING

@ East Pennsboro Branch Library Monday, July 4 - CLOSED for Independence Day

Do You Have a Story to Tell?

Summer is fast approaching and so is our summer reading program. This issue highlights the many activities available to our younger patrons throughout the summer. The theme this year - One World, Many Stories - promises to be exciting as it brings the world to our homes through the wonders of books and programs.

The library hopes this year to bring the world to our back yard by involving community support in the summer finale on August 2nd. Volunteers, who are from other countries, have relatives from other countries, or have traveled to other parts of the world, are invited and encouraged to participate in an outside lawn party to share their stories, adventures and history. This is an excellent opportunity for our community's young patrons to learn about other countries, cultures, and history. Stories of growing up in another country, the different cultures, foods, and customs are encouraged and welcome. Through community volunteering, the library hopes to bring the world to our back door.

Please contact the East Pennsboro Library at 732-4274 to help celebrate One World, Many Stories.

We've Added to our Teen Collection.

Be sure to stop in and see the new books in our teen area. Many new books have been added for teens. And more to come. We are also looking for your suggestions and recommendations.

Thank You for Your Donations.

The library appreciates your donations and reviews items for the library. Books and items that are not added to the collection are sold at the monthly book sale. All proceeds benefit the library and are very much appreciated.

Check our website at www.eastpennsborobranch.org for all upcoming events and activities.
